

POWER

Your POTENTIAL

Montgomery County Women's Conference

Danette Conley is Director, Employee Development at Incyte, where she helps leaders and their teams develop skills, confidence, and career readiness. With more than two decades of experience across the biopharmaceutical and manufacturing industries, she has held leadership roles focused on talent development, organizational effectiveness, and change leadership.

Danette is passionate about helping women build confidence, challenge limiting beliefs, and realize they are often more capable than they think.

She holds a BSBA, MBA, and DBA.