

POWER

Your POTENTIAL
Montgomery County Women's Conference

Karleigh Burns is a proud fourth-generation owner of Spring House Tavern, a cherished gathering place at the heart of the Spring House community for 76 years. Raised locally, Karleigh deeply values the legacy and tradition of her family's restaurant, which she now helps lead with passion and dedication.

After graduating from Cornell University, Karleigh gained valuable professional experience working in Washington, DC, first as a project manager at Verizon and later at an engineering firm. Ten years ago, she returned to her hometown to reconnect with her roots and community. It was there she met her husband, and together they are raising two young children, ages six and seven.

Karleigh's journey reflects a blend of honoring family heritage while bringing fresh perspectives and leadership to the family business. She is committed to nurturing both her family and the vibrant local community through her work and personal life.

