

Makenzie Lawson, MS is a Community Outreach Coordinator at Jefferson Health's Sidney Kimmel Comprehensive Cancer Center. With a background in public health and health education, her current work with SKCCC focuses on advancing outreach and education efforts across the suburban Pennsylvania counties. She supports the cancer center by building and sustaining strong community relationships, increasing access to cancer prevention, screening, and support resources, and ensuring that SKCCC initiatives are informed by community priorities and needs.