

Mary Griffith-Alfarano Vice President, Business Banking Manager Bucks and Montgomery County, is a dynamic leader in business banking, dedicated to empowering small business owners with the tools, resources, and financial strategies they need to succeed. As Vice President and Business Banking Manager, she has built a reputation for fostering strong client relationships, delivering tailored lending solutions, and championing local economic growth.

A proud resident of Montgomery Township for 45 years, Mary and her husband, Carl, will soon celebrate 40 years of marriage. Together, they have raised two adult children, and the family still cherishes their monthly game nights—always joined by Olive, their beloved Cockapoo. As a family, they are enthusiastic advocates for animal rights.

Mary's commitment to her community is reflected in her extensive service: she is a Board Emeritus for The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Montgomery County, Chair of the Business Development Group for Montgomery Township, a member, and a founding committee member of the Power Your Potential Conference.

She has led the charge with her support and leadership for over 13 years serving as co-president of Laurel House. This organization reaches many lives, including children suffering from domestic abuse. Laurel House is supported and recognized in Montgomery County.

She loves mentoring young professionals to help them reach their career goals and dedicates time to mentoring students at The Ursinus U-Imagine Center, guiding them through innovative projects that prepare them for real-world success.

With more than a decade of experience in commercial finance, Mary combines strategic insight with a personal approach, helping every entrepreneur she works with feel supported and understood. Her leadership is grounded in the belief that thriving small businesses help communities flourish.

When people in our business community speak of her, they just say “Mary” no last name needed, and everyone knows who that is!!!
