

Pam Kelly served as President & CEO of The Chamber of Commerce for Greater Montgomery County from 2012–2025, leading a period of transformational growth and innovation. Under her leadership, the Chamber achieved record membership growth, diversified revenue streams, and deepened partnerships with business, nonprofit, and community leaders. One of her most enduring contributions was the creation of the Power Your Potential Montgomery County Women's Conference in 2016, now a signature event celebrating and empowering women leaders across the region.

Pam's career spans more than two decades in nonprofit management, corporate partnerships, and community development, with leadership roles in healthcare associations, workforce initiatives, and youth foundations. She holds a Master's in Nonprofit Leadership from LaSalle University, along with a Bachelor of Science in Pharmacy from the Philadelphia College of Pharmacy & Science.

Recognized for her vision and impact, Pam was named a Philadelphia Business Journal Woman of Distinction in 2021 and received the Pillar of the Community Award from Greater Harleysville and North Penn Senior Services in 2022.
